

JUST RELEASED | EXCLUSIVE DESIGN BY SIERRA

AUGUSTAWOOD®

Our latest interior door design is artfully crafted in AugustaWood®, one of the most beautiful species known throughout the world. For homeowners who enjoy the natural beauty of wood, AugustaWood® is a unique alternative to Hickory, Cedar, Cypress, White Ash, Character Maple or Red Birch. When you view this door in person, you'll see how its rustic appearance is enhanced with natural color tones and even knot patterns.

BEAUTIFUL
ALTERNATIVE
& CEDAR

AugustaWood® is...

- A cost-effective alternative to expensive rustic hardwoods
- Complementary to many types of rustic wood trim and casings
- Very uniform in appearance; knots are tight
- Used in a variety of building materials for many centuries

ELEGANCE...INSPIRED by NATURE

- Doweled stile and rail construction
- Two piece laminated construction on all components
- Panel profile is very defined; offers a soft rounded edge; easier to finish and more elegant than a sharp edge panel profile.
- 1-1/2" panel can be machined, V-grooved, distressed or carved
- Wood is easy to work with and machines well

2-Panel Arch Design

Sturdy Stile & Rail Construction

Beauty is Enhanced with a Clear Finish
